

Martha Ann Javaras

February 27, 1935 - September 5, 2017

Martha Ann Javaras passed away September 5, 2017. She was born February 27, 1935 in Klamath Falls, OR to Ralph and Sammy Woodworth. When she was a young girl, her family moved to Vallejo. It was there that she met Adam Javaras II, who would become her husband for over 62 years.

Upon graduating Vallejo High School she completed cosmetology school and worked in a salon for many years. She and Adam moved to Napa in September 1962 where they raised their two children Adam III and Lisa.

Martha was an amazing seamstress and could sew anything. Often times her daughter would show her a picture of a dress or outfit she thought was pretty and the next thing you knew that dress or outfit would be hanging up next to Martha's sewing machine.

Martha loved family gatherings and cooking for everyone, she and Adam loved a full house. Over the 55 years they lived in their home, the door was always open to countless family and friends in need of a place to live.

For several years Martha watched many children for family and friends and she became a grandma to all of them. Martha was a strong willed, kind hearted woman who would do anything for you. She will be greatly missed by so many.

Martha is survived by her son Adam III (Georgia) Javaras; daughter Lisa (Victor) Villegas; grandchildren Angelé and Eva Javaras, Kyle and Monica Rivera, and Jordyn Villegas; and great grandsons Peter and Angelo Javaras Lopez.

Mama until we see you again we love and miss you, but our sadness is eased knowing you're back together with Papa.
