

Adam Javaras II

July 3, 1931 - February 25, 2017

Adam Javaras II was born on July 3, 1931 in Alameda, California, and passed away on February 25, 2017 in Napa at the age of 85.

Adam grew up in Vallejo, where he met his wife of 61 years, Martha Woodworth. They married in Reno, Nevada in 1955, a year after Adam was discharged from the US Army where he had served since 1952. In 1962, Adam and his bride moved to Napa and raised their kids Adam and Lisa. Adam worked at Solano Meat as a weigh master stockman for 27 years. Later on, he became a bartender and tended bar at the Elks Lodge and Chardonnay golf club. After retiring he continued to work driving limousines. He was a member of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

In his younger years, Adam liked to ride in weekend rodeos, as well as camping, fishing, and later, working in his yard. He always enjoyed working and spending time with family and friends.

Adam is survived by his wife of 61 years Martha, his son Adam Javaras III (Georgia), his daughter Lisa Villegas (Victor), his grandchildren Angele and Eva Javaras, Kyle and Monica Rivera, and Jordyn Villegas, his great grandsons Peter and Angelo Javaras-Lopez, and his sister Christina Javaras. He was preceded in death by his parents George and Mary Javaras.

His kids and grandkids meant the world to him. He will be forever loved and missed. So Papa, until we meet again we hope you're saddled up and riding through green pastures. We love you.

Donations may be made in his honor to Collabria Care Hospice and Adult Day Services.

“ Adam was a very happy-go-lucky man with a great personality and we were honored to know him and his family well for years. Adam and Martha were very good with my mother in all her years. Very caring people and we really appreciated all their visits. My 105 yr old mother did also. Our love and condolences go out to all the Javaras family and our thoughts are with you during this difficult time.

Love, Herb, Barbara, Dale(Angie), Brian (Tracy) and our grandson Chase Pinckney

“ First of all my condolences to the Javaras family. I have known Adam for many years. He has a been a loyal and good friend. We have worked together and you could not find a better man to work with at your side. A great personality!!!! Loved kids and kids loved him. Need help? Call Adam. Guys like Adam are the kind of people we need in this world. He will be missed. I wish you fair winds and following seas Adam.....Frank Geremia, Master Chief Petty Officer USN, Ret.
