

Carol Stahler

June 6, 1942 - July 22, 2013

Carol Stahler died July 22, 2013. She was born in Somerville, Mass., to Ernest and Almerinda Richards on June 6, 1942.

After graduating from Somerville High School, Carol worked as a telephone operator. She and her husband, William, came to Napa in 1966.

Carol was an active member of the Italian Catholic Federation, the Young Ladies Institute, the St. Apollinaris Catholic Church, and the choir at both St. John the Baptist Catholic Church and St. Apollinaris Catholic Church.

She was a loving mother and grandmother, and was friends with many people. Carol loved wearing hats and she loved the pet dove she had for many years.

Mrs. Stahler is survived by her children, Cari Stahler (Roger Howarth) of New York City, Jennifer (Ken) Chapman of Napa, William (Carole) Stahler III of Switzerland, and Mark E. (Jill) Stahler of Roseburg, Ore.; siblings Donald and Charles Parker Gullage, Veronica Dadmun, Ann Marie Soares and Cathy Sarsfield, all of Massachusetts; and grandchildren Julian, Jane, Juliet, Maya, Emily, Langston, Calvin and Dylan.

A funeral Mass will be held at St. Apollinaris Catholic Church on Saturday,

July 27, 2013, at 10 a.m. The Rosary will take place at Claffey and Rota Funeral Home, 1975 Main St. in Napa, on Friday, July 26, at 7 p.m. Burial will take place in Somerville, Mass.

Condolences to the family may be left at ClaffeyandRota.com. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to children's religious education for St. Apollinaris or St. John the Baptist.

“ Carol and I both worked at Redwood Jr. High (Middle) School and I would always enjoy listening to her speak because her accent reminded me so much of my Mother who was also from Mass. Our paths crossed throughout the years at various events and Carol was always pleasant, charming, and beautifully "put-together", including a hat. I am sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,
Judy Thomas
