

Dolores Marie Haines

August 27, 1929 - July 26, 2017

It's with tremendous sadness that we announce the passing of Dolores (Dee) Haines.

Dee passed away peacefully in the early hours of July 26, 2017 in Napa.

Shortly before her beloved husband Wyatt passed away in 2007, Dee and Wyatt celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary.

While Wyatt was working at the Post Office in St Helena. Dee was a full time mother. Although Dee and Wyatt did not have biological children, Dee was the proud mother of 7. The kids all varied in ages and came from very different backgrounds, Some were adopted, some were foster, and Dee was the proud mother to all of them.

Many people got to know Dee and her family during the 1970's when she ran the grill at Conn Dam. In that era, Conn Dam was one of the best family destinations in area. Conn Dam really was their happy place. Every day, Dee and family met hundreds of great people, and some are still friends of the family today.

Dee is survived by a great group who loved and adored her. They include from Napa, brother, Dick Meagher; sons: Jim Haines with is wife Sue Haines; Robert Haines with his wife Amy Haines.

David Haines of Mississippi, and Richard Casey of Tulsa, OK. Dee also leaves behind four grandchildren who all loved her: Living in Napa, Jessica Haines, Jamie Haines, and Aiden Haines. From West Bend, WI, Julie VanValzah. Dee also had two Great grandchildren: Alyssa VanValzah and Ben VanValzah.

Dee was preceded in death by her loving husband, Wyatt Haines, sister, Kathy Tissot, and daughter, Diana Haines.

In honor of Dee's life, The family will be having a private gathering in the near future.

The Haines Family would like to express our sincere gratitude for the outstanding care and support Dee received from Collabria Hospice of the Napa Valley. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations be made to Collabria Hospice of Napa Valley.
