“ Bob, Helen, Christine & Kim,

My condolences to all of you at the loss of your Mom & Grandmother Edie. She was fascinating, straight forward, energetic, and much loved by her family & friends. She will be dearly missed. Bob, you couldn't have been a more loving & supportive son. Edie was so fortunate to have you watching over her and helping her in so many ways. Chris, (Little Edie) I know you were particularly close to your Grandma and send heartfelt wishes to comfort you.

With deepest sympathy in the loss of one so deeply loved.

“ Aunt Edith, may you rest in peace as you are reunited with Uncle Bob, Daddy and all your other brothers & sisters and loved ones. My prayers are with you and your family.

I'm so glad I got to visit with you in your latter years. We had fun visits and good telephone conversations and a lot of laughs.

I have many good memories of you. One that makes me smile, goes back many years ago when I was making garlic bread at your home. As you were watching me, you said “girl that's not the way you make garlic bread!” I have made it your special way every since.

*God bless you and your family,
