Elio S. Bertolucci passed away June 21 2018 at the age of 92 surrounded by his family after a short illness. He was born in Napa, CA to Raimundo and Eletta Bertolucci on October 22 1925.

Elio was raised in Napa and started his life working for Earl Stewart at Stewart's Dairy. He then moved to the Luiz dairy where he met his wife of 70 years, Marguerite, and had 2 children.

Elios hobbies were RVing and wood working in his shop. He made many different items he proudly gave as gifts during holidays. As a member of the Sirs Roving Roosters RV club and several past RV clubs, he and his wife spent many miles on the road in their RV with their RV friends fishing, site seeing and touring the country.

Our hearts are sad today, but we have to remember how lucky we were to have had Elio in our lives. He was a great Husband, Dad, Grandpa, and great Grandpa who will be dearly missed by all.

So sorry to hear of the loss of your dad. You look a lot like him. It's really hard to lose our parents. They were such a big part of our lives. Just know that all the happy memories you had with him will help you through this time of sadness.

“ I am the Granddaughter of Earl Stewart and I now own the ranch with the “Beltie” cows. It was very heartwarming to read Elio’s obituary. I remember many of the workers but I believe Elio was before my time. His time at the dairy must have been memorable for you to mention it. My condolences to your family.

“ Dear Marguerite, I really wanted to be there today, but I'm on my 5th round of chemo and am too weak to make it. I cherish all of the great memories that myself and Deanna have with you both. RVing, playing games, and just enjoying time together. Elio will be missed.

Sincerely,

Duane

“ Uncle Elio, One of my favorite family memories was going to grandmas"s house every Friday with Mom. I enjoyed seeing your friendly face, and, Aunt Maggie, Mom, Mia(Aunt Mary) and sometimes other guest just having fun. Everybody sharing stories while playing canasta card game eating the best ever home made desserts. You were always fun loving active uncle building things in the garage or taking care of your colorful collection of birds. You will be dearly missed but never forgot. Our prayers and blessings to the family. family.

“ Uncle Elio used to call me "shrimp".... it was a very affectionate way of him saying hello.
He was always such a pleasant person and always joking. He is not a person I will ever forget.
It is so great to read about him, I didn't know he met Aunt Marguerite at the Dairy.
Thank you for sharing his story.
Our hearts go out to Aunt Marguerite and his family.
Much love from Carol Luiz and Sam
