

Mrs. Iole Louise Matteucig

March 1, 1926 - November 27, 2016

Mrs. Iole Louise Matteucig, born 03/01/1926, devoted wife to her now late-husband Professor Giacinto Matteucig, Ph.D. and loving mother to their three children: Catherine; Michael ; and, Laurence, passed away peacefully at Mercy Catholic General Hospital in Sacramento on Sunday, 27 November, 2016 at 22:10.

After graduating from U.C. Berkeley in the field of Library Sciences, Iole became a librarian at City College of San Francisco and also a Dean of Instruction for many years.

Over-and-above Iole's professional activities, she loved animals and cared for dogs and cats and would donate to San Francisco S.P.C.A.. Iole was also a Classical and Jazz pianist. She enjoyed cooking, baking, and travel to Italy to visit family-- as well.

Iole was a member of the California Library Association; Italian Catholic Federation at St. Cecilia Parish in San Francisco; Leonardo daVinci Society; and was a devout Catholic.

For the last eight years, Iole was a parishioner of Saint Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Sacramento together with her son Michael.

Private internment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Colma, CA. With Memorial Masses being held at St. Ignatius Church--University of San Francisco, Saint Boniface Church in San Francisco, and St. Francis of Assisi Church in Sacramento.

The MATTEUCIG FAMILY is eternally grateful to the wonderful, caring, compassionate, professional medical and ancillary professionals of Mercy/Dignity Health Care System--Sacramento-- who, for over six years made a point of offering mom superb medical services.

The Matteucig family would like to request our family friends and relatives to donate to: MERCY FOUNDATION/Dignity Health; 3400 Data Drive; Rancho Cordova, CA 95670

Blessings!

Catherine; Michael; and, Laurence Matteucig
