“ I met Irv when he participated in a project my group did for Leadership Napa Valley. He told us his story of having been a POW and agreed to be interviewed. It was a tremendous experience just to sit back and listen to him talk about what it was like to be in that situation and how they got through it. What a truly amazing man he was! I will always be grateful to have known him and for what he went through for his country. It would not be the country it is were it not for men like him.

“ I met Irv in 2005 at a reunion of former Stalag Luft III POWs. I was there with my 10 year old son, Mark and both of us enjoyed getting to know Irv. Mark is going to be 21 this week and is planning to join the Air Force. His grandfather was also in Stalag III.

“ RIP my friend. I used to talk to Irv when we both walked early in the morning. I always looked forward to seeing him, even if it was at 4:30 in the morning.

Irv you were wonderful. I worked with you on the Napa Grand Jury. Amazing that you wrote the entire handbook from scratch. You are missed. Tim Wilkens
