

James Wiley Meharg

September 25, 1945 - March 11, 2018

James Wiley Meharg died on March 11, 2018 at his home in Napa. He was born on September 25, 1945 in Napa to parents Wiley and Galelia Meharg. James attended Napa High, and after graduating he served in the US Army from 1966 to 1968.

James worked as a welder on Mare Island and was a lifetime member of the VFW and DAV. He was a collector of many things. He married his wife Joan in 1988 in Napa.

James is survived by his wife Joan; his children Gina, Nancy, Marshall and Lori; his sisters Mira, Ronda, and Sarah, all of Napa; as well as six grandchildren and one great grandchild. He was preceded in death by his parents.

The Meharg family would like to thank Dr. Dermody and the angels from Collabria Care Hospice. Please consider a donation in his honor to Collabria Care.

“ Jim was my first boyfriend after I graduated High School. They he introduced me to his cousin Billy Rogers who became my first husband. Jim was always sweet and friendly. He rented an old cabin from my parents and almost completely rebuilt it, making it so much nicer to live in. Jim was one of the Good Guys! I'm so sorry to hear of him passing. I know he will be missed.
