

John Curtis Barrington

February 20, 1933 - March 2, 2014

John Curtis Barrington passed from this earth on March 2, 2014. He was born to Curtis E. and Lois K Brancel Barrington in Milwaukee, Wis., on Feb. 20, 1933. He attended Milwaukee schools and was also active in the Boy Scouts and climbed to the rank of Eagle Scout. John attended Iowa State College, majoring in forestry. He then became a professional forester for the U.S. Forest Service and served on the Klamath and Six Rivers forests, ending his career at regional headquarters in San Francisco.

In 1956, he married his one love, Mary Ann Branson in Fort Jones, Calif. Together they raised three children. Surviving John are his wife of almost 58 years, Mary Ann; children Noreen Barrington (Jose) Rubio, Jana Kay (Alan) Collins, and Steven J. (Vicki) Barrington; grandchildren Daniel Rubio, Alanna Collins Stewart, Joel Collins, Andrew Barrington; and great-granddaughter Makenna Stewart.

"John touched the earth lightly, but left deep footprints for his family to follow."

Tribute Wall

“ John Curtis Barrington

September 29, 2022 at 04:54 PM

“ John Curtis Barrington

September 29, 2022 at 02:55 PM