

Deacon Kenneth Francis Bliss

December 15, 1918 - February 8, 2013

Kenneth Francis Bliss

1918-2013

Kenneth Francis Bliss, 94, died of natural causes on Feb. 8, 2013, at the Queen of the Valley Medical Center in Napa. His wife of more than 30 years, Gertrude (Talbert) Bliss, died in 2001, and his youngest son, Melvin, died in October of 2012.

Kenneth is survived by his oldest son, Forrest and wife Tracy; his daughter, Melanie; three great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; Melvin's wife, Dorothy, and Melvin's daughter, Amber.

Kenneth was born in Wisconsin on Dec. 15, 1918, the son of Frank and Eva (Hanson) Bliss, who also had daughters Elsie Preston, Grace Killian, and another son, Elder Vernon Bliss.

He worked as a carpenter's helper for his dad, then joined the Navy during World War II. After leaving the Navy, he worked at Mare Island Naval Yard in Vallejo as a machinist for more than 30 years.

He was a deacon in the Napa Seventh-day Adventist Church and would tape record the services for those who could not get to church, and replay it again in their home or rest home. His wife also had worked in/headed the Dorcas for many years.
