“ I've been thinking of all the memories I've had with my sister so to keep me from hurting so much I think about the time we were at our mom's my mom had a big bag full of clothes for Laura it was a big green garbage bag full of clothes so Laura picked up and threw it over her shoulders and as we were walking out of our mom's Laura says man this bag is heavy than all of a sudden she stops and says I feel something moving on this bag so she drops the bag and suddenly a big possum comes running out of bag we all screamed and ran everytime we brought that story up me and Laura would laugh so hard Laura I love you so much and I thank you for always being here for me and my family they also miss you and love you so much

Imelda parra Laura's sister - December 10, 2022 at 05:31 PM

Imelda, I am so sorry for your loss. Laura was such a sweet soul. I remember how close you two were. Your memory made me laugh. Many memories and good times. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Valerie Valentine Hawkins ❤️
