“ Dear family of Leigh: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Death is such a tragedy for all of us, especially at such a young age. And when it touches us personally, few of us find the comfort that we search for. And death itself leaves so many of us with unanswered questions. However, many have found comfort in God's Word the Bible. The Bible teaches that soon. God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8). God also promises to reunite us with our dear loved ones, by means of a resurrection, right here on earth, and we can live life to the full in paradise, that will be filled with peace, happiness and perfect health for everyone. What a wonderful hope and prospect this is. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4; Psalms 37:10,11,29; Isaiah 33:24.) As you read the above texts in your Bible, may the wonderful hope they give us, along with loving memories, bring you a measure of comfort during this most difficult time. Sincerely: David Cowles

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that the Bible reveals God's purpose to restore the dead to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. Jesus said: "The hour is coming in which all those in the graves shall hear his voice and come out."— John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:1-4. I hope you find some comfort in this promise.

“ You were and always will be the most caring, thoughtful, and amazing friend! I worked with Leigh at Robert Mondavi Winery for 3 years, went to Lake Berryessa and camping, and she is the only person I know who would agree to drive to Santa Barbara at midnight because I wanted to sign up for classes the next day!! The world has lost an amazing friend, daughter, and family member but she is with angels now and will forever be in our hearts!
