She began her teaching career at Westwood Elementary school in 1950, now Napa Valley language academy. She also taught at Dee T. Davis and McPherson Elementary. She retired in 1991 after 36 years teaching in a very rewarding profession that she loved.

During WWII, Marge met her future husband James Hendricks in St. Helena. They married in 1952 and made their home in Napa, CA. They were blessed with 2 boys, James "Ron" in 1953 and John in 1956. They are her pride and joy.

She was a member of State Teachers Retirement system, and St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church. She enjoyed travel and luncheons with her friends from the Friendship Club.

Marge is survived by her sons Ron and John Hendricks; Granddaughter Jaclyn Hendricks; Grandsons Alan, Jesse, and Daniel Hendricks of Napa; Brothers Al Butala (Oleta) and Ernie Butala of St. Helena; Nieces Pam and Janet Butala, Patti, Morgan, and Judy Padillo of Napa; Nephews Mike (Kathy), Ken (April), and Mark (Kirsten) Butala. Rose, Jim, Nellie, and Catherine of the Sagadin family. She was predeceased by her husband James of 38 years in 1988; her Mother and Father; Sister Marian Scruggs; nephew Bob Scruggs; and a baby brother.

She was a very private person but enjoyed and appreciated the times she spent with her family, close friends, and acquaintances.

Special "Thank You" to her former daughter-in-law Karen Lotridge and her dear friend and neighbor Rita Ferrero for all the love and support when she needed help.

“ Heartbreaking to find out the news of Mrs Hendricks. Being her caregiver I learned a lot from her, how to make gravy and a One Eyed Egg. I hope you weren't in any pain and had a peaceful transition.

“ *Marge and I taught first grades and planned our work together at DT Davis and McPherson Elementary.
Marge was always cheerful and positive-thinking, always thinking of new and better ways to teach this 6-year-olds.
I enjoyed her very much.
