

Margaret Herald

June 12, 1914 - May 9, 2013

On May 9, Margaret Ingalls Bennett Herald died peacefully at her home in Yountville.

She was born in San Francisco on June 12, 1914, to Elsie Katherine Himmelman and Christopher Reiher Ingalls of Alameda. She attended the Arts and Crafts School of Berkeley.

A memorial service will be held on May 15, at 3 p .m., at Saint Joan of Arc Church in Yountville.

A native of Alameda, California, Margaret came to Yountville in 1959, when she married Charles Herald, who served as Yountville's postmaster. Charles predeceased her in 1987, as did her first husband, Raymond T. Bennett, of Alameda. Margaret is survived by her Sister, Mabel Claire Long, of Fremont, and by her son, Glenn T. Bennett (Beverly), of

Saratoga, and grandsons Kirk Bennett (Sheri), of Danville, and James Bennett (Lisa), of Melbourne, Florida, and five great grandchildren. She is also survived by her niece, Susan

Stary (Mrs. John) of Campbell, her nephew Stephen Long (Molly) of Santa Barbara, four great nieces and nephews, and their families.

The family wishes to thank Janet and Lori for their loving and faithful service to Margaret during the end of life. Donations to Hospice of Napa Valley may be made in lieu of flowers.
