“ Avo, not a day goes by that I do not think of you. I miss you so much. The other day I was about to call your house to speak to you because I thought "Wow, I miss Avo's voice;" but then I realized I can never hear your voice again. There are times that the littlest things remind me of you and I can't help but cry. I hope wherever you are you are happy with Avo and without pain. I love you!

“ Though miles away, we are saddened by the news of the passing of a loved one. We wish we could be with our family to mourn the loss of a sister and aunt. Our deepest sympathies are shared with all. We feel blessed to say her brother was able to visit this past August and say goodbye in person one last time. We pray that her soul rests in a better place alongside many other loved ones. We wish our family courage and faith in this hard time.

With much love,
from her brother Antero, Humberta and Carla Cardoso
