

Patricia Ann Hook

May 6, 1942 - December 4, 2013

Patricia Ann Hook - 1942 - 2013

Born in Jersey City, New Jersey, Patricia left this world for a place of peace, quiet and contentment on Wednesday, December 4, 2013 after a year long fight against breast cancer.

Arriving in Napa with family in 1973, Pat quickly realized a place ideal for photography and quickly discovered many beautiful sights and scenes to attack with her cameras.

After a detour to Sacramento in 1978, the Hooks returned to Napa in 1993 in preparation of retirement and Pat commenced to build a library of some 5000+ photos, of the Napa Valley and surrounding areas. A long time wish was completed in 2010 as she photographed the last of all the light houses from San Diego to the Canadian border. Pat could be found out early in the morning as she followed and photographed the hot air balloons as they drifted above the valley and mustard season always kept the cameras busy. Her great smile, warm hugs and happy personality will be missed by all.

Pat is survived by husband of 51 years, Jerry, Son Jeff of Napa, Son Gary and Daughter-in-law Yvonne of Sacramento, Granddaughter Ashley Hook of Portland Oregon and Grandsons

Jared and Adam Hook of Sacramento

Knowing that passing was imminent, it was Pats' wish that all the family be together for Thanksgiving Day and celebrate life with happy remembrances.

The family will celebrate Pats' life with a private gathering, and ask that in lieu of flowers that any remembrances be made in her memory to the Kaiser Foundation Hospice Program, which has been so supportive and helpful during Pats' final weeks.

ME

“ My sincere condolences in regards to your Grandmother. I have lost friends to cancer and would like for you to know that death is only temporary because in our future Jehovah God will do away with death with the resurrection. Acts 24:15 says: " And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. " And what a happy time this will be, when those who have fallen asleep in death will awaken to life, free from sickness. John 11:11,34-44; Isaiah 33:24
