

Patricia Moore Barker

December 4, 1923 - May 25, 2013

Patricia was born on December 4, 1923 in Newberg, Oregon. She passed away peacefully on May 25, 2013.

Pat and Rod were married in Oregon on February 27, 1944 and lived the military life for 20 years. They then settled in Napa in 1960. Her contributions were many on behalf of others. She was very involved in the community especially with the American Cancer Society where she was a life time board member, a volunteer in Reach for Recovery, Valley Men who Cook, Relay for Life and last but not least a volunteer at the Discovery Shop in her later years.

She was predeceased by her husband of 50 years, Rod Barker in 1994. She is survived by her children, Lynne Barker of Cortes Island, B.C., Steve Barker of Truckee, California and Nancy (Bruce) Bradley of Napa, California; her grandchildren, Donald (Rachel) Hart, Kellie (Ed) Skapinok, Stacey (Chris) Hackett, Anthony Bradley and Jena Bradley; her great-children, Hannah, Brennan, Aidan and Leah Hart, Lindsay and Leah Skapinok, and Allie Hackett.

Patty was a courageous, independent and feisty woman who was a loving friend and loyal support to her family and friends. Her home was always open and you could always count on a good meal and plenty of laughter. She did not know a stranger.

Since late July of 2012 she lived at the Napa Valley Care Center where she was surrounded and supported by a very warm and caring staff and by her loving daughter, Nancy Bradley.

In accordance with her wishes a private celebration of her life will be held on July 20th with family and friends in attendance. Donations can be made to the American Cancer Society.
