

Providence "Pat" Goodwill

April 23, 1923 - October 22, 2013

Providence 'Pat' Goodwill was born on April 23, 1923, to the union of Rosario and Josephine Santalucia in Sicily, Italy. She immigrated to the United States through Ellis Island in 1933.

She received her formal education in Illinois where she learned English as a second language. As a young girl, she developed a life-long passion for dancing. She met the love of her life and long-term companion, Raymond Goodwill, at a dance hall and they were married six short weeks later. To this beautiful union was born six children.

Providence departed this life and entered heaven on Tuesday, October 22, 2013.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, David, Patrick and Lisa; her grandchildren, Andi, Becky, Ashley, Amanda, Austin, Alexandra, Jessica, Michaela, Aubrey, and Allison; and her great-grandchildren: Riley, Hudson, Kylie, Peyton, and Miles.

All who knew her and were loved by her were touched in a very special way. Her passion for life was contagious and she will forever be remembered for her compassion, strength and grace.
