

Robert Lloyd Nichols

February 15, 1927 - October 22, 2018

Feb 15 1927-Oct 22 2018

Robert Lloyd Nichols (Bob) went to be with the Lord peacefully after a short illness. He was surrounded by family and holding his daughters hand. He is survived by daughter Britt Berg ( Larry) grandchildren Heidi Garcia(Jorge) Rachel Scaduto, Miles and Gia Berg. 4 great grandchildren Angela, Jorge Jr, Anthony Garcia and Carlos Zuniga. He also leaves behind numerous family in Norway whom he loved to go visit. He was predeceased by his parents Myrtle ,John ((Nick) Nichols, stepmom Nell Nichols, 11 month old brother Dale Lee Nichols,2 wives Phyllis Garcia Nichols and Herdis Holvick Hagen Nichols. Bob was born in Washington but his family moved to Richmond Ca when he was young. At age 16 he went to work at Mare Island as an apprentice in Machine Shop 31. He took a break and served his country in the merchant Marines then in the Army in Japan with the 7th Calvary. He went back to Mare Island in 1953 and retired in 1982. Bob had a cabin in Canby, Ca where he loved to go. He was an avid fisherman and Arrowhead collector. He and his wife Herdis were delighted when their granddaughters were born. They took them camping fishing and travelling. Bob and Herdis were active in Sons of Norway Vallejo Lodge and Sonoma Moose Lodge. They loved to dance and were something to behold on the dance floor. Bob also played accordion. He could hear something once and play it by ear. For over 20 years he and Herdis walked down Imola Ave to McDonalds for coffee. Many thanks to Vallejo Hospice and His caregiver Ovini. Services will be held at Claffey Rota Friday

Nov 2 at 1100am.
