

Robert Lee Ott

September 8, 1929 - September 28, 2013

Robert Lee Ott passed on Sept. 28, 2013 in Napa. Robert was born on Sept. 8, 1929 in Columbia, Mo. He was the son of Noah and Gertrude (Shannahan) Ott.

Robert served in the Armed Forces as an Army Security Agency linguist. He later retired from Standard Oil of California, after a long career in the Richmond plant and in human resources at the headquarters in San Francisco.

He was a horse judge for the National Horse Show at the San Francisco Cow Palace for many years. He also wrote for the Kentucky Horse Magazine. He loved traveling and he loved animals, especially his dog.

He was married to Nancy Bullwinkel-Ott for many years and they resided in Napa. He is survived by his brother, Ronald Ott; and Ron's wife, Patricia of Southborough, Mass.; his brother-in-law, Guerino Pettinari of San Mateo, Calif.; and many nieces and nephews. He had two stepsons, David Bullwinkel of Napa and Douglas Bullwinkel from Lincoln, Calif.

Services will be held at Claffey and Rota Funeral Home in Napa on Thursday, Oct. 3, at 2 p.m. Donations requested to be directed to local hospice.
