

Robert Rex

November 8, 1931 - September 18, 2014

Robert Rex died Sept. 18, 2014, in Napa. He was born in Indiana on Nov. 8, 1931, to Alice and Virgil Rex.

Robert went to school in Winamac, Indiana. He entered the Marine Corps and served in Korea for four years. He came to Napa in 1955 and worked at Basalt Rock Company and Kaiser Steel, and later out of Local 343 as a welder. He was a member of the Yount Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Napa. He was a handyman and enjoyed gardening, fishing and dirt bikes. He possessed a great sense of humor.

Mr. Rex is survived by his spouse, Lillian Rex of Napa; children Steven Rex of Vallejo and Candice L. Marino of Walnut Creek; grandchildren Michelle Marino, Allison Marino and Alicia Rex; and numerous nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held at Claffey and Rota Funeral Home on Sept. 27, 2014, at 11 a.m. Burial with military honors will be at Sacramento Valley National Cemetery on Oct. 2, 2014, at 11 a.m.
