

Rosemary Jane Mailhot

November 7, 1952 - June 3, 2015

Rosemary Jane Mailhot passed peacefully away Jun. 3, 2015 at home, surrounded by family. Rosemary was born Nov. 7, 1952 in Groton, CT to Thomas and Eileen Mailhot. Rosemary attended of St. Apollinaris Catholic School, graduated from Justin Sienna High School and receiver and Associates of Arts from Napa Valley Community College. She was a teaching assistant for Napa Valley Unified School District and for the County of Napa working with special needs adults.

Rosemary was a member of St. Apollinaris Catholic Church. She enjoyed tea parties with friends, long walks with her dog in her neighborhood, word puzzles, and Turner Classic Movies (TMC). Rosemary never missed her weekly The Lawrence Welk show.

She is survived by her parents Thomas and Eileen, siblings Noel, Sr. Veronica, Michileen, Sheila, Patricia, Thomas, Wain Alana, Mary, Gemma; and numerous nephews and nieces who she enjoyed visiting with throughout her years.

Memorial donations can be made to Napa Valley Hospice, 414 S. Jefferson St., Napa, CA 94559.

Tribute Wall

“ Rosemary Jane Mailhot

September 29, 2022 at 04:54 PM

“ Rosemary Jane Mailhot

September 29, 2022 at 02:55 PM

“ To Rosemary's family, Rosemary was a student of mine at Napa Valley College, but I knew her best as a devout Catholic Christian. I am sorry for her suffering but happy that she is now where we all hope to be--with our Lord. God bless you all.

John Charlesworth - June 11, 2015 at 08:07 PM