Sara Lou Pilkinton Haygood
1930-2013

Sara Lou Pilkinton Haygood passed peacefully on April 10, 2013, at Queen of the Valley Medical Center in Napa, after a sudden illness. She was born Sept. 22, 1930, in Quincy, Fla., to Horace Lee Pilkinton and Mary Johnson Pilkinton.

Sara grew up in the Florida Panhandle area of the Gulf Coast, where she graduated high school in Apalachicola and later worked at NAS Pensacola, where she met her husband, Gordon Boyle Haygood of Greenville, Ala.

In 1965, they settled in Tucker, Ga., a suburb of Atlanta, where they worked and raised their two daughters. Sara was widowed in 1972, and she continued to work in Atlanta as a federal employee until her retirement. She moved to Napa in 2005 to be near her eldest daughter.

Sara particularly enjoyed traveling, gardening, reading, and Atlanta Braves baseball games. Until there were complications from Parkinson's disease, her beloved dogs were her constant companions.

Survivors include her daughter, Stacy Haygood Price of Gautier, Miss.; daughter, Lynn Haygood Lee of Napa; and son-in-law, Andrew Lee of Napa. She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Gordon; sister, Alice Porter of East Point, Fla.; brother, Horace Pilkinton of Pensacola, Fla.; and sister Velma Bedonie of Pensacola, Fla.

According to her wishes, Sara will go to her final rest in Pensacola when arrangements are finalized. Memorial gifts may be sent to Parkinson.org.

I love and miss you so much. Just to hear your voice and call me doll one more time. If only I knew and could have said goodbye. I'll always love you Aunt Sara Lou. ❤️
