“ So many great memories from our much younger days as cousins visiting the family in Napa, moving near them in Napa when in my early teens to years of adulthood while enjoying the outdoors fishing and hunting or a camp out with plenty of refreshments to share where Steve would cook morning and night and share stories while sipping a cold beer or Steve mixing the drinks for all, special memories when he, Larry and others made a surprise visit to see me in Mt. Shasta in the early '70's.

The years seemed to pass far too quickly, life took many turns and we still managed to stay in touch and share our friendship and just being cousins.

As adults we enjoyed music, parties, hanging out at his homes in Napa and sharing many things of mutual interests, then the time at his mountain home on Fuller Lake, what a cool and peaceful life he had there.

When seeing each other and catching up at family gatherings our conversations brought true meaning to knowing Steve and his gentle, witty and sharing nature with all.

I already miss knowing he is not there, rest in peace my friend, love you, Dale.
