

Virgil Ronald Montgomery

September 19, 1934 - December 27, 2019

Virgil Ronald Montgomery died peacefully at home on Friday Dec. 27th. Ron, as he was known by, is survived by his ex-wife, Dorothy, daughter Melanie, sons Marty and his wife Shelly, Jim and his wife Dana, son in law Wyatt, as well as grandson Tyler and granddaughters Ariel and Kayla. Ron was a 14-year veteran of the Napa Police Department, starting as a patrol officer and working his way up to detective. After retiring from the force, he then moved on to a long career as a journeyman welder, a trade he passed along to his sons, Jim and Marty. He finished his career as a superintendent. All of his life Ron was an avid hunter, fisherman, abalone diver and was always ready with a helping hand. He was known as "a man's man" but with a heart of gold. Ron will be profoundly missed by all of the people who knew and loved him.

“ Ron was a class act. He was gracious enough to meet with me and share his fond memories of the Napa Police Department when I was reaching out to retired officers in 2006 for the "Napa County Police" book I wrote.

“ I went to work at Napa PD in 1965. Ron was one of my first training officers. A great guy who imparted a lot of knowledge and common sense to us "rookies". He always treated people with respect and worked hard to keep Napa a safe place to live. It was a pleasure to work along side him.
